DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's preliminary amendment received August 17, 2006 is acknowledged.

Claims 44, 46, and 47 have been canceled.

Claims 4-7, 9, 11, 12, 14-17, 22, 23, 28, 30, 35-41, 43, and 45 have been amended.

Claims 1-43 and 45 are pending in the instant application.

A review of the instant application has uncovered multiple deficiencies with regard to the disclosure of biological sequences. Specifically Figures 1-4 and 7 disclose multiple biological sequences, yet such sequences are not identified by SEQ ID number either in the figure itself or in the brief description of the drawings. Similarly, page 30 discloses sequences unaccompanied by SEQ ID numbers. Also, the use of SEQ ID numbers in the claims, rather than the present manner of referring to figures, is most strongly recommended. In view of aforementioned problems, Applicant is required to review the instant application for compliance with the requirements of applications which contain sequence disclosures that are encompassed by the definitions for nucleotide and/or amino acid sequences set forth in 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. If the instant application does not have an appropriate SEQ ID NO: for each disclosed sequence, then Applicant must comply with said requirements. Appropriate corrective action is required.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-6 and 11-14, drawn to nucleic acids, vectors, and host cells.

Group II, claim(s) 7-10 and 42, drawn to polypeptides.

Group III, claim(s) 15, drawn to antibodies.

Group IV, claim(s) 16-23, drawn to methods of detecting polypeptides in samples.

Group V, claim(s) 24-32, drawn to methods of detecting nucleic acids in samples.

Group VI, claim(s) 33-39, drawn to methods of screening for RAET1G modulators.

Group VII, claim(s) 41, drawn to RAET1G modulators.

Group VIII, claim(s) 43 and 45, drawn to methods of treatment by administering polypeptides.

Group IX, claim(s) 43 and 45, drawn to methods of treatment by administering polynucleotides.

Group X, claim(s) 43 and 45, drawn to methods of treatment by administering antibodies.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-X do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The technical feature linking the instant inventions is the sequence of RAET1G. Tang et al. disclose a sequence which is greater than 87% identical to the amino acid sequence of figure 2 (see attached sequence alignment). As such, the technical feature linking the instant inventions was known in the prior art and thus the instant claimed inventions have been deemed to lack unity of invention.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
